What does the strategy invest in?

This strategy is designed to provide steady and stable levels of income, while minimizing the effect of reinvestment risk. Usually the longest bond in the portfolio is no greater than 10 years in maturity and all bonds are investment grade. The portfolio is concentrated in Provincial and Corporate issues to enhance yield and income.

Investment manager overview

Guardian was formed in 1962 and is one of Canada's longest-established, independent investment counselling firms. Over its 50-year history, Guardian has offered its investment management expertise in balanced fund management, equity management and fixed-income management to pension fund clients, institutions, operating and endowment funds, charitable organizations, mutual funds and high net worth individuals. Guardian Capital Inc. is wholly-owned by Guardian Capital Group Limited. The parent company's common and non-voting Class A shares are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Investment philosophy

Guardian's investment philosophy is to achieve a prudent balance between risk tolerance and return enhancement. This balance is key to successful longer-term performance. Guardian also believes that longer term success will be achieved through fundamental research, superior security selection, and implementation of a disciplined approach. The firm believes that there are numerous opportunities in the bond market without subjecting the portfolio to extreme interest rate calls

Investment process and risk controls

Guardian constructs fixed-income portfolios that emphasize the following factors: preservation of capital, liquidity/marketability, quality, diversification, and value-added trading. Guardian's approach to fixed-income management is value-driven. Its decision-making process includes five disciplines to overall portfolio construction. These are duration management, term structuring, sector weighting, security selection, and value-added trading.

Having limited the risk to the portfolio through constrained duration, Guardian actively structures the portfolio to take advantage of anticipated changes in the shape of the yield curve. In addition, sector weights will be adjusted to reflect spread levels available and expected. At times, the firm may have a heavier than average weighting in short-term Corporate bonds. Credit analysis is, therefore, an integral part of the decision-making process to ensure the portfolios benefit from the higher yields available, while avoiding potential downgrades and poorer quality issues

[2] Duration measures the sensitivity of the fixed income investments to interest rate changes measured in years. In general, the longer the duration, the more sensitive the investment will be to interest rates changes. Credit quality measures the underlying issuer's ability to repay their debt.

The return data is as atDecember 31, 2025. Indicated rates of return are historical annual compounded total returns including reinvestment of all distributions for the period ended, and do not take into account management expenses, account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any security holder that would have reduced returns.
